

Merry Christmas to Everyone
And a
Joyeux Noel tout moun
Christmas 2007

We want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas season and pray that you are all enjoying time together with your families and friends this Christ-filled season.

We are once again spending our Christmas in Haiti. Since Christmas is not celebrated much here, we won't have to worry about standing in lines to get our gifts wrapped or fighting traffic at the local Mall or Outlet Mall for that last special gift that we just had to have. We will be spending Christmas morning at a very small Catholic Chapel, that is located at HHF, having Christmas morning Mass with about 20 people. Last year it was a very special service, so we are looking forward to doing that again. We are about ready to put the lights on the house. We are the only ones on the block that have lights up....it is fun to sit on the porch at night and enjoy the lights. The kids next door enjoy them too.

We will miss our family and friends during the holidays; it is the hardest part about being away from home. We will miss having the holiday celebrations with everyone and talking to our kids and Steve's mom and sister on Christmas day, but know that they will be with parts of their own families and we know they will miss us as well. We will also miss going to our home church in Lewiston on Christmas Eve. The midnight service is a special time for us and we will be remembering everyone on that special evening as well.

We have had a crazy year, but a good year. We moved twice in the same town, only blocks away...and ended up in the same house we started in. Isn't life nuts. We spent a wonderful, wonderful three months in Idaho, and drove a total of over 8,000 miles from Florida and back again. We enjoyed a month long trip across our beautiful country visiting with friends and churches along the way. It was a great trip! We have hosted two teams since we returned in September and Steve has supervised the building of a school in Marfranc...it is almost done and the two teams that visited helped build it. What a great accomplishment, the children and their parents are so proud of the new school.

As this year closes we have so much to be thankful for. Thank you all for your love, prayers and support, we could not have survived this year without you. God Bless you during this Christ-filled holiday.

We send you love,

Steve, Joline, Sejan and KC
